PERDUE OR MEIS

Second Game of Nashville-Memphis Series Carded for Tuesday Afternoon, Which Is Ladies' Day.

BY BOB PIGUE.

BY BOB PIGUE.

Hub Perdue, the Gallatin Squash, or Molly Mois, both right-handers, will be Manager Roy Ellam's mound selection for the second game of the series between the Chicks and Volunteers. Rube Marshall, the elongated right-hander recently signed by the Chicks after he had quit the Chattanooga team, will pitch for the Tribe, Marshall was to have pitched Monday, but didn't feel good in warming up and was held over until Tuesday.

It is ladies' day and a large outpouring of fair fans is expected. The game will begin at 4 o'clock.

TINY LOSES HARD ONE.

TINY LOSES HARD ONE.

The breaks decide many a ball game, and they are exactly what decided the Monday affair between the Chicks and Vois, which went to the Capital City outfit by the narrow margin of 2 to 1. Tiny Goodbred and Bob Hodge, both six foot right-handers, staged a brillant pitching duel that went to the eighth liming before it was decided. The score was standing at one and one when Ballinger drove a two-bagger into right. Chick Knaupp bunted him along to third and Mike Burke, the Volcenter fielder, came up. Mike was anxious to score that run, for it meant the game. Mike swung on one and foule it off. He then tried the squeeze, but bunted foul. The count was two strikes and one ball on him. The Chick infield was in on the grass. Mike hit a weak popup that fell back of short and Ballinger scored with the winning run. Collenberger had no chance to get the ball and it went for a hit. Had the Chicks been playing back, Colly would have easily captured it. It meant the break that went to the Vols, and along with it went the decision.

Goodbred held the Nashvillians to six hits, and especially in the pinches was he tight. In the second inning Sally Dunning led off with a drive that cleared the right field wall for a home run, the first tally of the game.

The Chicks immediately got busy in their half of the second and tied the count as tight as Dick's hatband. Carroll opened with a safety to center of the one-ply variety and McLarry's infield out put him on second. Bischoff shot a single to left upon which Carroll rode home.

The Chicks could do nothing more with Lanky Hodge the rest of the shot a single to left upon which Carroll rode home.

The Chicks could do nothing more with Lanky Hodge the rest of the way. Only one more hit was secured off his delivery, a double to the right field dump by Bischoff in the fourth. The Chicks were swinging like church-yard gates the rest of the afternoon, vainly trying to connect.

Hodge's only trouble was that he was wild. He walked seven of the Tribesmen, but not a one of them ever managed to dent the counting stone. Several times the satchels were crowded with Chick runners, but Hodge always tightened, and with the aid of great support, he retired the side without any great amount of difficulty.

WAS THIS STRATEGY?

In the ninth, Acting Manager Polly McLarry of the Chicks sent in Pat Albris, a pitcher, to bat for Ray Blades, Chick second baseman. Albris is hitting 126, while Blades is considerably over the 200 mark.

Albris fanned the breeze, not coming close to getting a safety. Meyers batted for Goodbred in the final time at bat for the Chicks and hit to Ellam, who shot to Brown for the closing out of the game.

In the fifth Collenberger made a sen-of the game.

In the sixth it appeared as if the Chicks would score, when Griffin walked and Carroll put him on second with a sacrifice. McLarry also drew a base on balls, but here Hodge tightened Hodge threw out Bischoff, and Blades hoisted to Wickham

FRIERSON LOOKED GOOD.

Johnny Frierson, the newest Tribes-man of them all, played right field, and while he failed to cash in with a hit, he fielded well. In the ninth he re-tired two Vols by neat catches.

Rube Marshall, Chick right-handed pitcher lately acquired from Chatta-neoga, appeared on the sidelines, but the Chicks gave him nothing to cut up over.

The Vols were shooting at Andy High all afternoon. In the third Ballinger almost knocked Andy down with a drive and in the sixth Mike Burke did likewise.

In the second, following Dunning a homer, Jonnard shot a single to right which Prierson fielded cleanly and then made a perfect peg to second to fiall Jonnard as he slid into the bag trying to make it a two-bagger.

The Chicks got three hits off Hodge, and George Bischoff, Chick catcher, got two, a single and a double. In trying to field his double in the fourth inning Dunning fell down while trying to run up the hilf backward and silowed the in the seventh a fast double play res-In the seventh a rast double play cued Goodbred from a tucklish situation. Hodge was safe when Blades let his roller roll through his pins, and Ellam then hit to Blades, who tossed to Collenberger, getting Hodge, and Colly heaving to McLarry to hall Ellam.

Polly McLarry, acting Chick manager, got on base twice by way of walks on his last two trips to the plate. Ap-parently Hodge didn't cars to let Mo-Larry and Griffin get a crack at the ball.

Chick Knaupp Vot second baseman, is a brother of Cotton Knaupp, middle-man of the Pels. Like Mike and ike they look alike

Chief John Jeremiah McCloskey, alias "Honest John," of the Chicks, does not believe in closing the stable door after the plug is gone. This is the reason that Chief John is out now seeking one more pitcher and an infielder to bolister the fast fading Tribe before they slide into utter oblivion.

It is not yet too late for the Chicks to finish among the first four in the Dixie flag hunt, for the leaders are not very far in the forefront, and may crack at any time. So McCloskey is busy trying to land another pitcher, a left-hander preferred, and another infielder. He did not give out his destination when he left Memphis, but said he wasn't coming back until he landed the pair of players he was after.

The other day Steve O'Nelli, star catcher of the Indians, was forced to leave his team for several days because of the illness of his wife. Leslie Nunamaker, former Red Sox and Brown catcher, got oodles of praise by the way in which he filled the gap, both in his hitting and receiving. And no doubt a lot of fans remarked: "I guess that was a bad deal when we got him."

It was a good deal all right. But Josh Billings, the catcher the Indians sent to the Browns when they got Nunamaker from the Far West team, is making the deal look just as sweet at the other end.

John isn't catching regular—not with all right. But all provides the stands of players he was after.

IT IS UP TO MACK.

A manager is either a hero or a burn it depends upon whether his club it winning or not. At the first of the stands of John isn't catching regular—not with the other end. John isn't catching regular—not with the favorite pinch hitter on the team and when he breaks in quite often behind the plate he holds up his end there, too. He is batting around .333. He collected twenty blows his first sixty times up.

It indeed seemed that the long-lost Tribe of Chicks out of the was figured to be the Moses to lead the was figured to be the Moses to lead the was figured to be the wonder of the season, when the Chicks were standing on not. At the first of the season, when the Chicks were standing on not. At the first of the season, when the Chicks were standing on not. At the first of the season, when the Chicks were standing on not. At Chicks had at last rounded out a winning combination.

And then the blowoff came. Things went from bad to worse. The Tribe lost 13 out of 16 games, and that was enough for Mack. He left for parts unknown to look for ball players.

It means McCloskey's job to make a good showing with the Chicks. Neither the management nor the fans will stand for a loser in Memphis. So that is an all-important reason why McCloskey has gone out for players. He has been given free rein and a signed blank check to spend as much as he needs for the men he is after.

Mack will be back when he returns.
That is the most reliable data at hand right now. Nobody has heard from him as yet. Here's hoping he may not return alone.

Preparing To Make
Another Raid

NEW ORLEANS, La. July 13.—Accepting to rumors in New Orleans today the Delta league is trying to make another raid on Southern league clubs. It was reported that a scout had arrived here Sunday and had made offers to Hugh Bradley, of the Pelicans, and Harry Tutweller, of Mobile, Both players are wanted by the Greentille club. The New Orleans club recently filed suit against the Jackson, Miss. team for $50.000 for "enticing" Tim Murchison from the Pelicans.

It was a noticeable fact Monday that Johnny Frierson, new Chick outfielder, hustled down to first every time he had a crack at the batt.

A few of the others would please the fans more if they would follow Johnny's example. The fans pay the money that keeps the athletes salaries paid and they might give them something in return.

Hub Perdue said Roy Ellam always saved him to pitch on ladies' day.

Yale Sloan Goes To Lookouts In Marshall Deal

Yale Sioan, Chick right fielder, has doffed the war paint of the Tribe and is now a member of the Chattanooga Lookouts. Sioan went to the Chattanooga club in part payment for Rube Marshall, a righthanded pitcher who was recently acquired by the Chicks from the Chattanoogans.

The sale of Sioan was made necessary in order to make room for Johnny Frierson, who was secured a short time ago from the Little Rock Travelers and who has been stationed in right field. Sioan had not been hitting for the Chicks, and seemed unable to get his eye on the ball, which is the reason the Chick officials decided to dispose of him. He has always been a good hitter, and it is difficult to understand why he could not get going as a Tribesman.

Sioan was well liked by Memphis fans, and while they regret that his passing was necessary, they are willing for any member to go if it will help the Chicks. The Tribe was in need of pitchers more than out-fielders, and when Chief McCloskey will help the Chicks. The Tribe was in need of pitchers more than outfielders, and when Chief McCloskey decided to secure Rube Marshall, President Nicklin, of the Lookouts, told Mack that he would have to have some taient in addition to money. So Sloan was included in the deal.

Marshall will get his first start as a Tribesman Tuesday, while Sloan is also expected to be in the Lookout lineup Tuesday.

Getting four hits in a game is nothing special for George Sisler. The records show he has made that many in a game at least 20 times in his major league career, to say nothing of turning in five a few times.

It is currently reported in St. Louis that the Cardinals stand ready to give a hundred thousand in cash and several bats for any of John McGraws pitching staff, or for Catcher Earl Smith. New York papers please note.

Scotty Alcock, who must be pretty close to 35, is the best all-round and most valuable player to his team in the Coast league, says Bill Essick. Scotty can play infield outfield, catch and pitch in a pinch. Furthermore he's always willing and doing his best no matter when or how called on.

Walter (Biff Shaller, of the Portland team, whose wife released him some months back, has been given another chance. Mr. and Mrs. Schuller asked the court to set aside the decree. In giving his decision the judge said: "It seems that Schaller was flying out too often, but he's going to be a home run king after this."

A total of 23 runs were scored in the six games in the Western Canada league on June 12. Saskatoon and Calgary furnished variety. They played a 1 to 9 game to open a double-header and then in the second game run on a wild batting match, the final score being 19 to 11. Regima and Winnipeg tried to equal this, but did not quite make it, the score they piled up being 19 to 8.

He was awarded the decision by Referee Billy Haack. By virtue of his victory over Lewis and his successive wins, Norfolk has earned the

LEWIS STARTS WELL.

Lewis Starts well.

Lewis, who carried into the ring with him fully 20 pounds in excess of that conveyed by Norfolk, started out like a lion, but finished like a lamb, He went out with the intention of disposing of Norfolk as soon as possible and tore into the New Orleanian in the first round which made spectators figure that Norfolk would not be there when the eight round had been reached. In fact, it appeared as if Lewis would score a knockout, But the Shreveport negro shot his wad in the first round, the only session he copped out of the eight. He landed on Norfolk almost at will in the opening stanza, but Norfolk weathered the storm, and came out of the initial mixup without having been hurt.

The Cincinnati club has added Russ Hall to its staff of scouts. Hall's last previous engagement in baseball was as owner and manager of the Tacoma team, where he lost much of his harderned wealth.

Norfolk was a 6-to-5 favorite when they entered the ring, and he put up the best fight he has shown thus far in local arenas.

Norfolk was in superb condition, having worked hard for the past couple of weeks in anticipation of meeting Lewis, who had stated that he was going to knock Norfolk out, and then take on Langford. Norfolk will make a much better fight with Langford than would Lewis, and if Norfolk will fight Tham and forget that he is Langford, he stands a good chance to win.
